

EGIC

Euro-Gulf
Information
Centre

PRESS REVIEW

Conference: The Economic Future of the Gulf: Reform and Development

Rome, 23 September 2016

1. Radio France International - RFI

The article, published in English on the 27th September, was an interview with the Minister of Oil and the journalist Christina Okello.

- EN "Bahrain overhauls economy as oil prices plummet", Radio France International, Christina Okello.

Rfi is a French public radio service that broadcasts in Paris and all over the world. With 35.6 million listeners in 2008, it is one of the most listened to international radio stations in the world.

---

2. Agi – Italian Journalistic Agency

Agenzia Giornalistica Italia (AGI - Italian Journalist Agency) is an Italian news agency. It is one of the main news agencies in the country. The agency became part of Ente Nazionale Idrocarburi (ENI) in 1960. The agency focuses on news about economics and industry.

- A. ITA "Petrolio: ministro Bahrein, bene strategia Opec, prezzo risalira", AGI, Francesco Russo

- B. ITA "Bahrein: le sfide della diversificazione dopo crollo barile", AGI, Francesco Russo.
-

3. Libero Quotidiano

Libero is an Italian newspaper published in Milan, it has a center right-wing and liberal stance. The 2008 circulation of the paper was 125,215 copies.

- A. ITA "Bahrein: le sfide della diversificazione dopo crollo del barile", Libero Quotidiano, 24 September 2016.
- B. ITA "Petrolio: ministro Bahrein, bene strategia Opec, prezzo risalirà", Libero Quotidiano, 24 September 2016.
-

4. Corriere Quotidiano

Corriere Quotidiano is an online newspaper with several regional insights.

- "Il prezzo del petrolio salirà nel medio termine", Corriere Quotidiano, 28 September.